

GEN. HUERTA'S ORDER CAUSES GREAT RELIEF

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS EXPRESS THEIR SATISFACTION

It is Persistently Stated Outside Officials That Suspension is Only Conditional—Federal Gunboats Leave Tampico for Puerto Mexico U. S. Submits Peace Plan.

Washington, June 8.—General Huerta's order today suspending the blockade of Tampico against the delivery of ammunition by the Steamer Antilla to the constitutionalists served to dispel apprehension over a new crisis between the United States and the Huerta government which had threatened mediation efforts.

Officials here expressed satisfaction over Huerta's action. It was persistently suggested outside of official circles that the blockade had been suspended only conditionally as a result of conferences between the South American mediators and the Mexican delegates at Niagara Falls and that the Antilla's cargo of arms might not be delivered at Tampico at this time. It was said the Antilla, which is due at Tampico Wednesday might be diverted through an agreement with officials of the Ward Line, her owners, an American corporation. President Wilson, Secretary Bryan and Secretary Daniels gave evidence of great relief over the late developments, which temporarily at least have averted another clash of arms. One important question said to have been raised at Niagara Falls was whether the United States construed the mediation agreement to obligate it to prevent arms entering into Tampico which the Huerta government had declared closed. If the United States did not so construe the cessation of hostilities which it was assumed would be held in violation of the mediation agreement, it was assumed to be a breach of faith should Huerta's gunboats attempt to stop the Antilla's cargo of ammunition for Carranza's forces. Such questions, it is declared were put up to Secretary Bryan from Niagara Falls and Huerta was asked to suspend the blockade order until the subject should be cleared up.

The Mexican gunboats Zaragosa and Bravo, followed from Puerto Mexico by the American Cruiser Tacoma and Gunboat Sacramento reached Tampico shortly after eight o'clock this morning.

Rear-Admiral Badger cabled the navy department late tonight that the Mexican federal gunboats Bravo and Zaragosa left Tampico for Puerto Mexico, at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Conditions on the west coast of Mexico already bad for the Huerta government are said to be becoming worse, according to Admiral Howland's report to the navy department. Not only is there heavy fighting at Santiago and San Anita, Lower California, but Mazatlan is nearly starved out and internal dissensions are imminent.

He reports Thomas Fernandez presumably an American imprisoned at Tepic.

The Brazilian minister in Mexico City advised the department he had been unable to find any trace of E. D. Foster, a newspaper man and Patrick McKinney another American, both having been arrested several weeks ago and released an hour later. He reported that Max Blume and George Duvall were released from custody in Mexico Saturday. They were held as spies.

U. S. Offers Peace Plan.—The United States government through Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann today presented to the three South American mediators a complete plan for the pacification of Mexico. It is the same in principle as that presented by the mediators and already agreed to by the Huerta government. It contemplates establishment, at the earliest date practicable of a new provisional government in Mexico City, which would conduct general elections for a permanent government. The plan written by the American delegates after consultation with the Washington government is brief and includes several counter propositions of which the Huerta delegates will be advised tomorrow. From the mediators themselves it became known that the differences in the two plans are slight. A full conference of all delegates and mediators is planned for tomorrow or Wednesday. This is for the formal consideration and final drafting of the protocol. It is known authoritatively that the plans originally for the constitutionalist participation—the declaration of an armistice and broadening the scope of discussion from international to internal questions—still is not acceptable to the constitutionalists though official word to that effect is lacking.

Leaves Will Bequeathing $1 TO HUSBAND AND SUICIDES

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 8.—Leaving a will bequeathing $1 of her wealth to her husband, Charles A. Purcell, a broker in Chicago, Mrs. A. G. Purcell ended her life today by inhaling poison in her hotel apartment. Mrs. Purcell had lived here two years. The remainder of her estate was left to her daughter in law, Hilda Purcell of River Forest, Ill.

Charles A. Purcell is a principal in a suit now before the supreme court in California which attacks his right to the personal use of the half million dollars estate of Mary B. Purcell who left the property to Mrs. Purcell as legatee.

SEVERAL FAVOR LETTING HUNGER STRIKING SUFFRAGETTES DIE

It is Reported That British Government Is to Legislate to Indemnify Prison Authorities Against Consequences of Allowing Suffragettes to Starve to Death.

London, June 8.—"Let them die," is becoming a rather popular slogan in connection with the hunger striking suffragettes since the public has become so profoundly resentful of the actions of the militant women. It was reported today that the government had decided to take a step in this direction by introducing legislation to indemnify the prison authorities against the consequences of allowing suffragettes to starve themselves to death while in prison.

The Evening Standard today interviewed a number of prominent people, including clergymen, on the subject and all of the latter were quoted by the newspaper as expressing themselves in favor of the proposal. Father Bernard Vaughan, brother of the late Cardinal Vaughan, replied: "There would be nothing ethically wrong in letting them die. Let them start at once and make up for lost time."

Rev. Arthur Watson, vicar of St. Mathews, Rixton, said: "If the women refuse food, they should be allowed to die."

Rev. Richard Free, vicar of St. Clement's, Fulham, replied: "I think the suggestion very good. I have advocated it for many months."

Several of those interviewed denounced impartially both forcible feeding and the "hunger strike," while Willoughby Dickinson, a liberal member of the parliament, Lady Cowdray and Lady Muir-MacKenzie dismissed the suggestion as preposterous.

EXPECT DECISION TO-DAY ON PERSON'S APPLICATION FOR BAIL

Counsel for Prisoner Declared He Would Prove That Editor Was Lured to Scene of Shooting by Telephone Call From Musser.

Chicago, June 8.—Judge Walker, in the criminal court today, announced that he expected to give a decision tomorrow on the application of Carl Person for release on bail pending his arraignment on a charge of killing Tony Musser, former chief of police of Clinton, Ill.

Counsel for Person declared that he would prove that the editor and labor leader was lured to the scene of the shooting by a telephone call from Musser, who impersonated a friend, and that on the arrival of Person, Musser attacked him.

"Assuming the statement of facts to be true," said Judge Walker to L. O. Williams, state's attorney of De Witt county, "don't you think the man is entitled to bail?"

Williams agreed with the court, but declared that he did not believe that it could be proven that any decoy methods were used.

Several witnesses were called to support the assertions of Person's attorney.

DISCUSSES REASONS FOR FAILURE OF EXPERIMENTS IN SOCIALISM

Taft Declares That Until Men Are Perfect Socialism Must Either Constitute a Tyranny or Be a Failure.

New Harmony, Ind., June 8.—Reasons for the failure of experiments in socialism were discussed by William H. Taft today in an address at the centennial celebration of the founding of New Harmony.

The experimenter, he said, failed because it found no substitute for the motive essential to arouse and make constant human effort that is furnished by the institution of private property. If man were so perfect that his love of human kind would banish selfishness and retain in him the same energy, self-sacrifice and industry in behalf of others that he now manifests in behalf of himself, there would be no need for the organization of a "socialistic community," Mr. Taft said.

Until men are perfect, he declared, socialism must either constitute a tyranny or be a failure.

Thaw's fight for freedom reached the supreme court of the United States today when former Governor Stone of Pennsylvania, a counsel, asked for his release on bail pending a final decision of the proceedings by which the state of New York seeks to return the noted prisoner to Matteawan. BILL WOULD PROHIBIT LECTURING FOR PAY

REPRESENTATIVE BRITTEN INTRODUCES MEASURE IN HOUSE

Provides For Heavy Penalty For Any Cabinet Officer, Head or Clerk of a Government Department Lecturing For Other Than Actual Expenses—Saves No Party in Attack.

MONDAY IN CONGRESS.

Senate.
Met at 11 a. m.
Debate resumed on the repeal of the Panama tolls exemption. Senator Poindexter spoke against it.

House.
Met at 11 a. m.
Continued work on the appropriation bills.

Adjourned at 6:05 to 11 a. m. Tuesday.

Washington, June 8.—Secretary Bryan's lecture tour dropped up in the house again today when Representative Britten of Illinois, Republican, introduced a bill to make it a penal offense for any cabinet officer, head or clerk of a government department to lecture for pay other than actual hotel and traveling expenses and to prohibit senators or representatives from lecturing for pay while congress is in session. Offenders would be fined $10,000 or imprisoned for two years or suffer both penalties.

Mr. Britten launched a broadside in a statement accompanying his bill in which he spared no political party and included Senator La Follette and Representative Murdock.

He said: "The recent announcement from Philadelphia that several members of congress and the distinguished secretary of state had signed contracts for a period of lectures beginning July 1st, is responsible for my bill. I am at a loss to understand how the secretary can consistently leave his office when a state of war practically exists between this country and Mexico and the foreign policy of our government is being laughed at by every civilized nation on earth."

"This certainly is no time for Mr. Bryan to be hiking around the country doing one night stands with Tyrolean Yodlers, contortionists and sleight of hand artists and I am equally opposed to any member of congress doing this sort of thing when congress is in session."

Secretary Bryan announced some time ago that all his lecture engagements for the coming summer were contingent upon the state of foreign affairs and whether he could be absent from Washington.

RAPP'S DEFENSE AGAINST WIFE'S DIVORCE SUIT CEASES SUDDENLY

Only Two Witnesses Testify After Which Case is Given Over to Attorneys For Argument.

Chicago, June 8.—William Rapp's defense against the divorce suit of his wife, Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, ceased suddenly this afternoon with the testimony of only two witnesses and the case was given over to the attorneys for argument.

The diva herself was on the stand and was asked only one question, the date of her marriage to Schumann. An objection to this was sustained by the court. Bryan Humphries, who was the famous contralto's former chauffeur and Miss Helen Satter, her traveling companion were the witnesses for Rapp.

Humphries had glimpses of George Baldwin, of Appleton, Wis., at his employer's home. Miss Satter said that a policeman with a fine voice visited the madame and her home in New Jersey for singing lessons.

The forenoon session was consumed chiefly by the reading of Rapp's impassioned letters to Mrs. Catherine Dean of New York, alleged affinity named by the singer.

DECISION UPHOLDS COMMISSION'S POWER

SUPREME COURT ANNOUNCES FINDING IN SHREVEPORT RATE CASE

Takes Long Step Toward Placing Railroads Under "One Master Instead of Many" in Upholding Power of Interstate Commerce Commission to Strike Down State Rates That Discriminate Against Interstate Commerce.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—A long step toward placing railroads under "one master instead of many" was taken by the supreme court in upholding the power of the interstate commerce commission to strike down state rates that discriminate against interstate commerce.

The court said in substance that the Minnesota and other recent state cases in which the railroads lost, might have been decided otherwise had the roads gone to the commission for relief instead of the courts. The decision was announced by Justice Hughes, Justices Pitney and Lurton dissenting. The case arose out of complaint by Shreveport merchants that the Texas railroad commission had shut them out of all Texas business by compelling the railroads to reduce Texas rates far below what the interstate commerce commission allowed the railroads running from Shreveport to Texas cities to charge. The court first decided that congress had power to control interstate charges over an interstate carrier to the extent necessary to prevent injurious discriminations against interstate traffic and then held that congress had conferred this power upon the interstate commerce commission.

"It is of the essence of the power to regulate interstate commerce that where it exists, it dominates," said Justice Hughes. "The fact that carriers are instruments of intra-state commerce as well as of interstate commerce, does not derogate from the complete and paramount authority of congress over the latter or preclude the federal power from being exerted to prevent the intra-state operations of such carriers from being made a means of injury to federal commerce. Wherever the interstate and intra-state transactions of carriers are so related that the government of the one involves the control of the other it is congress and not the state that is entitled to prescribe the final and dominant rule, for otherwise congress would be denied the exercise of its constitutional authority and the state, and not the nation, would be supreme within the national field."

In removing discriminations against interstate commerce, the court held congress was not bound to reduce the interstate rates below what it may deem to be a proper standard to the carrier and the public.

"Otherwise," said the opinion, "it could prevent the injury to interstate commerce only by the sacrifice of its judgment as to interstate rates."

Justice Hughes who wrote the court's decision in the state rate cases of a year ago pointed out that the present case did not conflict with those cases. He said that undoubtedly in the absence of a finding by the commission of unjust discriminations, intra-state rates were left to be fixed by the carrier and subject to the authority of the states.

"We are not unmindful of the gravity of the question that is presented when state and federal views conflict," the opinion concludes. "But it was recognized at the beginning the nation could not prosper if interstate and foreign trade were governed by many masters and where the interests of the freedom of interstate commerce are involved the judgment of congress and of the agencies it lawfully establishes must control."

Members of the interstate commerce commission regarded this case as one of the most important in which the body ever has been involved. The decision of the Missouri supreme court ousting from the state and fining the International Harvester company of America $25,000,000 for being a member of a "trust" was affirmed while the action of the Kentucky counties for penalties against the same company for being a member of a "trust" was reversed.

CITY PUMPING FROM MUNICIPAL PLANT

NEW PUMP WAS CONNECTED WITH GENERATOR MONDAY AFTERNOON.

Machinery Started Off Smoothly and Water is Being Delivered at Rate of Million Gallons a Day—City Now Has Current More Than Sufficient to Furnish Light and Do Own Pumping.

The hour 2:08 Monday afternoon marked an epoch in the development of the water department of Jacksonville from the fact that at that time current was turned on from the municipal plant to the pump at the Widenham Daub wells and pumping began with the city supplying the current.

For several weeks the work of installation for the new centrifugal pump purchased from Fairbanks-Morse & Co., has been in progress and there has been other work as well including various changes in underground system of piping. The wire connections were also made and yesterday O. A. Reed, the representative of Fairbanks-Morse & Co., who has been the adviser for the city council in the important changes they have made at the light plant and pumping station came to the city and made the finishing touches connecting the pump with the municipal plant.

After everything was inspected and found to be in shape Mr. Reed had the current turned on and the pumps started smoothly and evenly and without a hitch in the machinery. The pump was kept working all afternoon and last night and a very satisfactory sight it was to see the water from three of the wells being delivered to the new cistern which had just been built and from thence flowing into the large cistern just outside the pump house. The water from the three wells was flowing at the rate of 1,000,000 gallons per 24 hours.

The new pump and motor are of such a type that they consume far less amount of current than does the old pump. It was therefore possible last night for the municipal plant to furnish with only the belted generator in operation, current for pumping and for the city lights. It was possible to do this because the incandescent lights on the street do not use half as much current as did the old lamps and because the current consumed by the new pump is so much less than required by the old one. From this statement it will readily be seen in what condition the city will find itself when the new boilers are connected up at the city plant and are ready for use.

The arrangement is such that both light and current for pumping can be taken from the belted generator or either one only can be taken, and the same arrangement is true with reference to the power unit purchased in the east and installed a number of months ago. This generator is sufficient to more than supply the current for both light and pumping. It will therefore be seen that the city will have sufficient current for all purposes of its own, a goodly amount of reserve and a still further amount to sell commercially. The changes in the piping at the wells have in their few hours of operation shown how great is the advantage above the old arrangement. Now, one well does not pump to the disadvantage of any of the others and it is possible by looking into the cistern or small reservoir just connected to tell in what quantity any well is delivering water. Heretofore all the piping was underground and when anything was the trouble with the supply it could not be readily told in which well the equipment trouble was located. There are five wells and the pipes to this cistern mentioned are in the same order as the wells and, as before indicated, simply a glance is necessary to note the amount that each one is delivering.

It goes without saying that City Commissioners Brennan, Knollenberg and Newman, who were at the wells yesterday, were delighted when the machinery was started and everything moved off in such a satisfactory way.

Pumping was begun into the reservoir on College Hill and the stream was kept going there until it had been filled and then the supply was changed to the stand pipe and this was being filled last night. The guarantee on the pump placed by Fairbanks-Morse and Company was that after it was installed and in running order that it should be equal to the work of filling the stand pipe.

A great deal of work has been done at the Widenham-Daub wells and the frame building there now houses some valuable machinery.

The council some months ago made a contract with the Railway & Light Company for the use of the power line which runs from the wells to a point about 200 yards south paying a rental for this line and the transformers attached of $5 per month. At the point mentioned the line connects with the city line which was run out from the plant.

The council also sometime since exchanged property deeds with Messrs. Widenham and Daub whereby they obtained a straight roadway from Oak street to the wells. This road has been cleared of trees and flowers have been planted on the land immediately adjacent to the power house and altogether the property now presents the appearance of being well kept.

It is the intention now, Mr. Brennan says, to continue to pump from the wells for the city's supply and so conserve the water which is in Morgan Lake. However there is still some work to be done in the well equipment and there will be necessary shut downs at intervals until all of the work is completed. Mr. Reed, who certainly seems to be an expert in his line, has given the city very satisfactory service and all of the equipment he has placed has been equal in every way to the guarantee.

ANNUAL OPEN MEETING OF JUNIOR ETUDE CLUB

Pleasing Program Given by Members in Recital Hall of Conservatory—Mrs. E. C. Carpenter Presented Beautiful Spoon.

The fifth annual open meeting of the Junior Etude club was given in Recital hall of the Conservatory of Music last night, before an audience that completely filled the auditorium. The program was one which demanded consistent work and ability and it was a pleasure to note the splendid progress this club, composed of the younger musicians of the city, is making. Five years ago Mrs. E. C. Carpenter organized the club, which is now composed of twenty-one girls. From time to time they have met at each other's homes and each year have been heard in a program to which the public was invited. The large audience present last night, including some from out of town, showed the unusual interest their friends have taken in their welfare. The various numbers were given in splendid style and all received hearty applause from the audience. The two Japanese songs were given by the girls dressed in Japanese costumes and the stage was decorated in Japanese colors and articles. The songs were so well rendered that an encore was demanded. Many compliments were passed upon their work at the close of the program. The members of the club feel most grateful to the Woman's College and the Conservatory for the use of their halls.

One of the pleasant features of the evening, after the musicale, was the presentation of a beautiful solid silver jelly spoon by the members of the club to Mrs. Carpenter. The presentation speech was made by Miss Lola Markille, president of the club. Mrs. Carpenter expects to leave the city soon to make her home in Bloomington and the girls took this method of showing their appreciation for the one who had encouraged and helped them so much in their work.

PEOPLE PROFIT BY RATE WAR. An interesting article in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch tells of a rate war between the American Light & Power company, a subsidiary of the North American company, and the St. Charles (Mo.) Electric Light & Power company which is giving St. Charles consumers the cheapest electricity they have ever known.

The American, which gets its current from the Kookuk dam, has announced a flat rate of $1.50 a month for a seven-room house. This rate gives the consumer the privilege of using one electric fan, electric irons and of burning his lights twenty-four hours a day if he wishes. If the consumer has a six room house he may include the lighting of his barn at the $1.50 rate.

The new rate was promptly met by the St. Charles Electric Light & Power company, which has been in business for thirty years. The old company announces that it would make a flat rate not only for residences, but also for business houses. The St. Charles rate war is being watched with eager interest by other electric companies. The public service commission has also taken cognizance of the conditions prevailing.

RETURN FROM TRIP TO SOUTH AMERICA

Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Thompson Have Spent Three Months in Travel Very Delightfully.

Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Thompson arrived home Sunday from a tour occupying three months quite pleasantly spent. They sailed from New York March 4th on the steamer "Vandick" of the Lamport & Holt line, English owners. They were on the water 21 days and landed first at Rio Janeiro, Brazil where they remained a number of days. They were much pleased with the place and all that pertained to it. The harbor they found most beautifully skirted by drives and many attractive features. The place itself it quaint and well managed. The streets are swept and at night washed profusely making the air somewhat cooler in the morning and the thoroughfares clean and tidy.

There are more than a thousand policemen in the city and they are to be found at almost every tack and turn. The city itself is very hilly and some hill rises so abruptly that no houses can be erected on their sides and they occupy prominent places in the city. Many other hills are not so steep though they rise to a considerable height and often it look as if trees were growing from the roofs of houses as they are growing immediately back of houses much lower down than those to the rear.

There are many improvements in the place paid for by the general government as it is the capital of the land and the people are proud of it.

From Rio Janeiro they sailed for Santos and there took a railroad for Sao Paulo, the principal object of their journey. Santos is on a great plateau some two thousand feet high and is reached by a cog railroad owned and managed by English capital and said to be the richest corporation in the world or at least to have the best paying enterprise.

While in Brazil the doctor took occasion to visit a good many hospitals and was much pleased with what he saw. Every courtesy was accorded him and he saw a number of operations and many facts and things pertaining to the work. He says the nurses were capable persons, mostly English born and educated. The hospitals he found well equipped with modern appliances and seemingly doing a good work.

Mr. Carriel he found occupying a leading and prominent position in McKenzie college and doing a fine work. He speaks the language like a native and is mingling with the people as one of them. He also does much other work in addition to his college duties and in many ways endeavors to serve his country as best he is able. The voyage home was uneventful and the doctor and his wife were glad once more to set foot in Jacksonville.

STAGE SET FOR INTERNATIONAL POLO.

New York, June 8.—Everything has been placed in readiness at the grounds of the Meadowbrook club at Westbury, L. I., for the first game to be played tomorrow afternoon in the series between teams representing the United States and England for possession of the international polo championship cup, now held in this country.

It will be the sixth contest for the famous trophy and the third that has been held on the vast grassy expanse of turf on Hempstead Plains.

In some respects it will be the most notable meeting of the representatives of the two great polo nations of the world and it will be witnessed by the largest gathering that has ever looked on while the championship of the world in polo is being settled. Clubmen and social leaders from Boston, Philadelphia, Newport, Washington, Narragansett Pier and elsewhere will attend in large numbers.

The opening match tomorrow will be followed by a second on Saturday. If a third contest is necessary, it will be played on Saturday of next week. It is next to useless to attempt a forecast of the results of the matches. Polo is too uncertain a game to deal with other than generalities. The human element enters so largely into the proposition—to say nothing of the animal factors—that nothing more than a general outline of the situation is worth

LABOR FEDERATION MEETS IN EL PASO.

El Paso, Texas, June 8.—A large and representative attendance marked the opening here today of the 17th annual convention of the Texas State Federation of Labor. The exchange of greetings, reading of reports and appointment of committees occupied the opening session.

IN SESSION AT NASHVILLE.

Nashville, Tenn., June 8.—The National Association of Labor Commissioners and the International Association of Factory Inspectors began a joint meeting here today with an attendance representing many parts of the United States and Canada. Labor legislation and workshop and factory inspection are the principal topics to be discussed during the four days' sessions.

Cincinnati, June 8.—The spring meeting of the Latonia Jockey club opened at the local track today under conditions that promise one of the best meetings held here in several years. Liberal purse offerings have attracted an unusually large number of fast horses. The meeting will continue 24 days, closing July 4.

We have assembled for this week another list that is astonishing—not to say startling—in its disclosure. Bear in mind as you read these items that the reduced price is for this week only. SULLIVAN RELEASED

ON HEAVY BOND

Decatur Insurance Man Under Indictment For Fraud Appeared in U. S. District Court Monday.

Decatur, June 8.—Percy B. Sullivan of Decatur, president of the Assured's National Mutual Fire Insurance company of Decatur, indicted for conspiracy to use the mails to defraud, appeared in the United States district court this morning and was released on $5,000 bonds. Sullivan was indicted Friday by the United States federal grand jury, but the indictment was not made public until today when Sullivan was apprehended.

The indictment covering ten counts charges that the Assured's Mutual Fire Insurance company is a fraudulent concern and that Sullivan as president of the company not only appropriated its funds to his private use, but used the United States mails to further his fraudulent schemes by the sending of circulars and personal letters to prospective premium holders, in which the conditions regarding the company's finances were misstated.

Sullivan is charged with appropriating $10,000 of the company's funds to his own use while he knew the company was in fraudulent straits. He is also charged with fraudulently using the mails to collect fraudulent and illegal assessments against the members of the company.

The grand jury found that in October, 1913, when the company was without assets or surplus that Sullivan sent through the mails a statement that the "surplus as regards policy holders" was $648,643.98, whereas it was absolutely nothing. The company also failed to pay cancelled policies after Sullivan had cancelled them.

Let us oil your dusty roads. The dust settled for the season for a mere trifle. Coking Cement Co., Illinois phone 1351.

LIGHTNING LOSSES CONTINUED.

During the month of May there were reported to the State Fire Marshal Department of Illinois, outside of the city of Chicago, 71 fires caused by lightning. These fires entailed a total loss on buildings and contents of $237,300. Not a single fire was reported as having occurred on a building property rodged. Fifty-five of the reports stated that the buildings were not rodged, and sixteen reports failed to specify as to whether the building was rodged or not.

The reports for this month are typical of prevailing conditions relative to rodged and unrodged buildings. The Department, therefore, is warranted in believing that practically every lightning fire is caused by failure to have the building properly rodged.

MADE ADDRESSES.

PLACES PROSPECTIVE CROP AT NINE HUNDRED MILLION BUSHELS.

Estimate Is 137,000,000 Bushels
More Than Were Ever Grown Before in the United States and Almost Half of the Average World's Wheat Production.

Washington, June 8.—Nine hundred million bushels of wheat, 137-

000,000 bushels more than were ever grown before in one year in the United States and almost half of the average world's wheat production, is the prospective yield of the farms of the nation, the department of agriculture announced today in its June crop report. The 1913 crop set the record up to that time and was referred to as a bumper yield, totaling 763,000,000 bushels.

This year the group of southwest states alone, including Kansas, are credited with 350,000,000 bushels.

Oats yield indicated in the report is 12,166,000,000 bushels. Only once before in the history of the nation has the oats yield exceeded this volume. The barley yield is placed at 200,000,000 bushels.

The report indicates the following:

MISS DAISY COONS GIVES BREAKFAST FOR WEDDING PARTY

Delightful Gathering at Home of Bride-to-be—Gifts Presented to Young Women—Ceremony Takes Place This Evening.

Miss Daisy Coons entertained the young women of her bridal party at a formal breakfast Monday morning at her home east of the city.

The decorations were in the wedding colors, white and silver.
The tulle of her mother's wedding veil over pale green formed the table covering, which was caught up with small white flowers. Wide bands of white satin ribbon crossed the table and formed bows at the corners. A large silver basket filled with bride's roses and fern leaves formed the centerpiece. At each plate were smaller white baskets filled with the white flowers; silver baskets for bon-bons and lily of the valley baskets for nuts. Silver candl-sticks and silver lace doilies helped to carry out the color idea.

A dainty menu of five courses was served in which the colors of the wedding were carried out.

At this time Miss Coons presented the gifts to her wedding party.
To her three bridesmaids, Miss Edna Stout, Miss Florence Rice and Miss Ann Cleary, she gave trays of white brocaded satin, framed in white enamel with handles of silver. To her honor maid, her cousin, Miss Cloyd, she gave a silver tray.

The wedding service of Miss Coons and Mr. Stout will be read this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, east of the city.

der to enter the contest for the Democratic nomination for governor of Georgia.

The ballots in the August primaries in Kansas will contain the names of more than 100 candidates for congressional and state offices.

George L. Wellington is being urged by his political followers to become a candidate for the Progressive nomination for United States senator from Maryland.

Because of the act passed at the recent session of the legislature to make the state law conform to the seventeenth amendment to the federal constitution providing the manner and form of electing United States senators, will not become effective until June 16, not having an emergency clause, Kentucky will have one vacant seat in the United States senate until that date, the governor being powerless to appoint Senator Bradley's successor until the new enabling act becomes effective.

How I Produced 12 Pounds of Beef From One Bushel of Corn.

I bought 44 cattle through Milton Marshall & Co., St.
Louis, of Henry Wright, they averaged 961 pounds, March 19, 1914 in St. Louis. I put them in dry lots March 27th, fed them all they would clean up in 30 minutes, crushed corn, cob and all then cooked in the 50 bushel size Wood's Grain Softener.

I put them on grass May 25th, they averaged 1209 lbs.
when put on grass. While in dry lot I gave each steer 5 lbs.
clover hay. After they ate their grain, I kept oat straw before them all the time, but they would not eat over one bale of straw per day. I fed at 6 a. m. and 6 p. m., at regular hours.

I measured the grain fed with a No. 8 scoop, feeding 50 scoops at each feed or 100 scoops per day, all they would clean up. I put in 29 bushels ground cob corn and all into a 50 bushel vat. This will fill it making 50 bushels feed, which makes 4 feeds, all they will clean up. I drew 50 gallons of syrup off and added 50 gallons of water, then added 1 1-2 bushels of ground oats and shorts, with which I a mfeedine 80 pigs that are doing well.

I will feed the cattle about 30 days longer and would be glad to have any one interested come and see them.

TEXAS CATTLEMEN PROTEST AGAINST ARGENTINE BEEF

State Association Favors the Use of United States Product by the Army.

San Antonio, Tex., June 8.—By promptly endorsing the stand of President Joe D. Jackson of the Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas in making a vigorous protest against an alleged discrimination by the United States Government, whether intentional or otherwise, against American beef, the cattlemen of Southwest Texas went on record in favor of upholding the use by the army of beef raised in this country.

A meeting of the representative cattle raisers and bankers was held here recently. The body chose President Jackson of Alpine as chairman. Mr. Jackson said that he had addressed a letter to Secretary E. B. Spiller of Fort Worth, in which he made it plain the Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas vigorously protests against the wording of the call of the United States government for bids on 2,000,000 pounds of meat, in which it is specified that "Argentine meat is preferred", for United States soldiers in Mexico.

It is Mr. Jackson's idea that cattlemen and farmers, because of their being tax payers, should at least have the benefit of any preference in furnishing supplies for the troops of their own country, especially in view of the frequent assertions that beef produced in the United States is vastly superior in quality to that shipped from the South American republic.

In explaining the proposition, President Jackson said:

"It seems to me that the United States government can ill afford to give a foreign country preference in the purchase of meat to be consumed by American soldiers, whom cattlemen are taxed to keep up. It is impossible for me to understand why they should have worded their specifications in such manner. They have put it entirely too strong, and in the interest of the members of our association I have already entered an emphatic protest against the discrimination implied in the call for bids."

Another serious complaint is that the United States government has specified a weight of 500 pounds. This is said to be both "unwise and discriminating." It is pointed out that Argentina has more aged steers at present than the United States, and they can present carcasses of 5 and 6 year old steers which would dress 500 pounds, although not being half fat, while 3 year old steers from this country would have to carry a good supply of fat to dress from 400 to 450 pounds. Yet the American beef would be much more wholesome and tender.

In view of these conditions those who attended the meeting promptly endorsed Mr. Jackson's action in making a formal protest to the government's preference for Argentine meat. President Jackson was instructed to take up the matter at once with Texas congressmen and senators and endeavor to have the objectionable words in the call for bids eliminated.

Another matter that was disposed of by the meeting held was the endorsement of candidates for director in the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas. Mr. Jackson said it is highly desirable that Texas cattlemen shall have at least one representative on the board of directors. H. L. Kokernot of San Antonio and Marion Sanson of Fort Worth were placed in nomination for directors in class B. Both were endorsed unanimously. The resolution reads:

"Be it Resolved, That the cattlemen of this district use their best efforts in securing the election of H. L. Kokernot as a director in class B for this district; and,

"Be it Further Resolved, That we endorse Marion Sanson of Fort Worth for the position of director in class B from that district; and we pledge ourselves to use every effort to further the election of these two men."

The Colonel's River

By WALT MASON.

The colonel, afar in Brazil has found a new river, they say; it's deeps, and it travels up hill, and broadens out into a bay. It's borders are ruggedly bluff, and it has some preposterous falls; the colonel will soon have it stuffed and brought to Smithsonian halls. It has a most wonderful bend, this river the colonel has found; and sometimes it stands upon end, then burrows down into the ground. Its waters are yellow and pink, it's covered with glittering foam; they say it's lots better to drink than any old grape juice at home. And sirens recline on its shore, their music is heard through the mist, and down on its beautiful floor the mermaids are playing bridge whist. We're always left sure in our mind the colonel would do things in style, and any old stream he would find would beat our other streams by a mile. Good by to the old Mississippi! Its fame and its glories will flee! The Amazon henceforth may slip unsung to its grave in the sea. The Rhine and the Danube, I fear, must down to oblivion flit; the colonel has captured their peer, and broke it to saddle and bit! Good by to famed streamlets and burns, the Afton, the Avon, the Po! Just wait till the colonel returns, and marks how such rivers sing low!

EDUCATION IN THE ARMY.

How Uncle Sam keeps the officers and men in his army up to the top notch of efficiency is told in a special report on "Educational Systems in the American Army," in the annual report of the commissioner of education just issued. The statement was prepared by Capt. Douglas MacArthur and approved by Gen. Leonard Wood.

"No country in the world has as complete a system of professional scholastic training for its officers as the United States," declares Captain MacArthur. "This is due to the inherent difference between the military establishments of foreign nations and that of our own. Their armies are at all times kept upon a war footing, as a result of which they have ample opportunity for the perfect training of the personnel in the practical duties of the military profession."

"In such an army, the main object is to train every man for the efficient performance of his duties in the grade which he holds when war comes. A lieutenant does not dream of becoming a captain merely as a result of war except as a vacancy is made for him in the casualties of battle. Only in the same way does a captain expect to become a colonel; nor would the idea be tolerated that great numbers of trained line officers are to be suddenly transferred to various staff positions."

"Their organizations are founded upon the theory that there is nothing mysterious in the art of war; that technical and scientific training is needed by only a small portion of military officers; that certain things which a Napoleon must know, every officer must know, and can as readily acquire as he, while the things which differentiate a Napoleon from other generals cannot be acquired in any school, not even in that of war."

"Such a system would be thoroughly unsound if transplanted to the American army, the organization of which is quite different from continental armies. In fact, the most striking feature in our service is the absence of what constitutes the very essence of the foreign establishments; that is, a great standing army serving in corps, divisions and brigades, in which the average officer of any grade learns the details of his profession by practical work and with the minimum of theory."

"Our system of military education must therefore differ from that of the other great nations of the world. It must be such as to educate our officers so that they will be able at a moment's notice, when the war expansion comes, to perform the duties of far advanced grades and to render service in branches of the army, both line and staff, in which they are not commissioned in time of peace. For this reason we have established a progressive system of schools designed to teach officers and men, limited only by their individual capacities, the duty of the man-in-arms in all grades from lowest to highest."

"The military educational system of the United States comprises: The military academy at West Point for the education of cadets; post schools for the instruction of enlisted men; garrison schools for the instruction of officers in subjects pertaining to the performance of their ordinary duties; the army service schools at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., including the army school of the line, the army staff college, the army signal school, the army field engineering school, the army field service and correspondence school for medical officers; the special service schools, consisting of the engineer school, school, Washington barracks, D. C., the coast artillery school, Fort Monroe, Va., the mounted service school, Fort Ripley, Kan., the army medical school, Washington, D. C., the school of fire for field artillery, Fort Sill, Okla., the school of musketry, Fort Sill, Okla., the signal corps aviation school, San Diego, Cal., the schools for bakers and cooks, Washington Barracks, D. C., and the school of the coast artillery, Fort Sill, Okla., the training school for soldiers and for battery mechanics of field artillery, Rock Island Arsenal, Ill.; the school of instruction for enlisted men of the regular army selected for details for duty with the organized militia, the engineer trade schools; the army war college, Washington, D. C.; the schools of instruction for college students, and the military departments of civil institutions at which officers of the army are detailed under the provision of law."

FOREST NOTES.
The annual capacity of the forest nurseries of the government is about 25 million young trees. The Cornell University recently dedicated a forestry building in connection with the state college of agriculture.

It is said that the best times of day to see forest fires from lookout stations are just after daylight and just before sunset.

The forest service has been requested to cooperate with the port authorities of Coos Bay, Washington, in planting to control shifting sand dunes.

Jack pine trees planted ten years ago in the sand hills of Nebraska are now large enough to produce fence posts. Last year the first seed was gathered from this plantation.

The agricultural experiment station at Pullman, Washington, is establishing an arboretum in which it is proposed to grow a group of each of the important timber trees of the temperate zone.

TRIAL OF ALLEGED MURDERER.

La Crosse, Wis., June 8.—The case of Walter Jones, under indictment charging him with the murder of William Vocek, was called for trial in the circuit court here today. The killing occurred in the streets of West Salem on May 5 last. The defendant claims he shot in self defense, fearing that Vocek was the leader of a mob that threatened to lynch him. Jones was under arrest at the time and in charge of a deputy sheriff.

CITY COUNCIL HELD

USUAL MONDAY SESSION

Ice Regulation Ordinance Causes Discussion—Officers Reports Received.

The city council session Monday morning was very brief, as there was not much business demanding the attention of the commissioners. Mr. Knollenberg presided, in the absence of Mayor Davis, who was in Moline, and Mr. Engel was not present on account of illness. Some officers' reports were presented and they constituted all business requiring attention except the ordinance which were introduced at the last meeting.

One of these relates to licenses for house moving and it was given a second reading and adopted by the council. The other ordinance relates to the licensing of ice dealers, and on request of Mr. Brennan action was deferred on this ordinance for another week. Mr. Brennan stated that he had not had opportunity to look into the exact facts. John A. Bellatti was present as attorney for the Snyder Ice and Fuel company and said that his client was not opposed to the ordinance in any way except from the fact that it provides for a license fee. Mr. Bellatti said that he had looked into the matter and that he was unable to find any law whereby the council would have any authority to single out ice dealers to pay a license for doing business. Mr. Bellatti said he believed the courts would hold that such a measure was class legislation; he said further that all the other provisions of the ordinance were not objectionable to the ice dealers.

Mr. Knollenberg stated that the principal purpose of the ordinance was to provide a license so that one of the conditions for issuing the same would provide that dealers must sell for cash as well as coupons. Mr. Snyder replied that the dealers would continue to sell only by coupons and said that the system was being used with great satisfaction to the public and the dealers in Peoria, Springfield, Danville and a great many other cities. He said that the coupon books were sold at a lower price than heretofore and that thus people were given an allowance for paying cash.

Mr. Brennan expressed himself as not believing that it was equitable to require people to pay in advance for their ice on the theory that it ought to be satisfactory to the dealers to receive the money when the service had been rendered. Mr. Brennan, Mr. Knollenberg and Mr. Newman all expressed themselves as believing that there should be some provision for poor people to buy ice who do not feel able to pay in advance for a dollar book.

Mr. Snyder said that people who couldn't afford books could purchase coupons from a grocery store in their neighborhood or from somebody in the neighborhood having a book and that in cases of necessity where there was sickness and the people didn't have anything to pay, that ice was not refused.

Mr. Knollenberg said that Mr. Miser had told him that a few days more would be desirable for a consideration of the franchise matters, as Mr. Chubbuck has not yet returned from the trip which has taken him to New York and Montreal for the past two weeks. He said further that Mr. Miser expected Mr. Chubbuck here the coming Friday.

The council adjourned on motion of Mr. Newman. The next meeting time was fixed for Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Officers' reports were received as follows:
George P. Davis, chief of police, reported 14 arrests, amount collected, $70.65. Arrests were as follows: Drunk, 5; disorderly, 8; assault, 1.

A. M. King, health warden, reported 36 deaths; at insane asylum, 14. The ages were as follows: Under 1, two; 5 to 20, three; 20 to 50, seven; 50 to 70, thirteen; over 70, eleven. Contagious diseases: Diphtheria, eight; scarlet fever, one, measles, one.

W. T. Dyer, justice of the peace, reported fines collected, $32.95; city costs, $15.70; justice of the peace costs, $22.

LIGHTING THE

PASSENGER TRAIN.

How the Moving Train is Lighted by Electricity—Difficulties Which the Engineers Have Overcome in Lighting Trains and the Various Systems Now in Use.

The electrically lighted passenger train is no novelty on any first class road but there are few passengers who can tell how the electric current is produced which keeps the electric lamps regardless of whether the train is in motion or not.

First class passenger trains are not only lighted by electricity but the current has been adapted to drive electric fans during the hot summer months and, in one or two instances, it is also used in the kitchen of the dining room car where the food is cooked over the invisible fires of electricity.

In lighting a passenger train provision must be made for supplying the current whether or not the train is in motion. To accomplish this a storage battery is generally installed in connection with the electrical generator. There are three systems in use for train lighting. The first is the straight storage system which consists of a storage battery large enough to store sufficient current for the needs of the train in route between terminals. Of course this storage battery has to be charged before each trip. The lamps are lighted by merely turning the switch which draws on the current stored in the battery.

In the second system a small generator, is geared or belted to the wheels of one of the cars. This generator supplies electricity directly to the lamps and also to an auxiliary storage battery which keeps the lamps burning when the train is standing in stations or yards. This system is rather more complicated than the first but has the added advantage that the storage battery does not have to be charged at the terminals.

In the third system a small generator driven by a Curtis steam turbine engine, which secures steam from the locomotive boiler, is used to supply the current. This tiny turbine generator may be mounted on top of the locomotive boiler or in one corner of the baggage car. It takes up but very little room. A small storage battery is used in connection with this set so the cars may be lighted even if the locomotive is uncoupled and removed.

The advantages of electric lights for passenger trains are many. First of all they eliminate the dangerous gas tanks and gas lighting systems, and the old oil lamps, which usually set fire to the train in case of wreck. The electric lamps do not overheat the car during the warm days of summer and they do not vitiate the air of the coaches making traveling uncomfortable for want of good ventilation.

Let us oil your dusty roads. The dust settled for the season for a mere trifle. Coking Cement Co., Illinois phone 1354.

LITERBERRY.

Misses Bertha Mason and Alma Ogle, is company with their friends, Claud Young and Ray Maul, called at Sunshine cottage Thursday evening.

Mrs. Sykes, Sr., and Mrs. Sykes, Jr., and little Wilma, all from Beverly, Ill., are visiting at "The Zephyrs" on East Capitol street for a few days.

We received through a Saturday mail from our young friend, Guy Lewis Zerby, an invitation to the commencement exercises at Eureka college, Eureka, Ill., of the class of 1914, to come off on the morning of the 11th, at the tabernacle. We extend our best wishes to young Mr. Zerby for his success in a useful life.

Mrs. Barbara Chalmers and Prof. and Mrs. Burley Jones were guests of Mrs. Willard Young Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ogle of Meadow Land place, in the Grace chapel neighborhood, came up Sunday evening to attend Children's day service at the Christian church and made a pleasant call at "Sunshine."

The horse show last Thursday was a success in spite of the dust. A large crowd gathered in our little town to see the races. Broadway street, Sweet Briar avenue and Peoria boulevard were lined with carriages and autos. A good supper was served in the basement of the Christian church to a large number of hungry people.

On last Wednesday we drove the Mitchell car down to the "Dinwiddie Homestead" and spent a pleasant day with Grandpa's Dinwiddie and Wayne's family. One thing we remember very distinctly was the nice dinner Mrs. Dinwiddie and her two pretty daughters served. We also met Ed Barr and had a social talk on old times.

Miss Mildred Henderson of Jacksonville is visiting relatives here.

John Kennedy of Arcadia was auto riding through our town Sunday.

IF SKIN ITCHES AND BREAKS OUT APPLY EULPHUR

Get Ounce of Bold-Sulphur Cream and Heal Eczema Right Up.

For years, common bold sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous affections, by reason of its parasite destroying property. It is not only parasiticidal, but also anti-pruritic, antiseptic and remarkably healing in irritable and inflammatory conditions of the skin.

The moment you apply it to an itching or broken out skin the itching stops and the healing begins, says a noted dermatologist. Just common bold-sulphur made into a thick cream effects such prompt and remarkable results, even in aggravated Eczema that it is a never-ending source of amazement to physicians.

While not always establishing a permanent cure it never fails to subdue the angry itching and irritation and heal the Eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin.

Any good pharmacist will supply an ounce of bold-sulphur cream which should be applied to the irritated or inflamed parts, like the ordinary cold creams. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded is very welcome, particularly when the eruption is accompanied by itching.—adv.

BALDWIN DEFEATS GORMAN
Local Pugilist Is Booked for Three More Fights at Des Moines This Month.

Friends in the city have received word from Al ("Young") Baldwin, that he was successful in his match with Gorman at Des Moines last week. At the end of the mill both of Gorman's eyes were closed and his nose was bleeding, but his ability to stand punishment would have made Battling Nelson envious.

Baldwin is matched for a go with Kid Beebe on Friday of this week,
one with Andy Dans on June 18, and has another for the latter part of the month.

LINCOLN SIGNS RAPP.
Lincoln, Neb., June 8.—William Rapp, veteran catcher, was signed by the Lincoln club today. Rapp was one of the mainstays of Sioux City last season but was not signed this year.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

George Stewart of Winchester was in Jacksonville a few hours last Thursday, and when he left for home that evening the tongues of the local horsemen enjoyed a long session of wagging. Stewart on his way home from San Antonio, Texas, early this spring stopped off in St.
Louis and visited the stock yards in East St. Louis, Ill. Here he caught sight of a likely looking little horse; he opened negotiations with the owner, but when they got down to real business there was a wide breach between the two men on the price. Mr. Stewart continued on to Winchester only to return to the east side stock yards the following week.
The "pride of his heart" was entered in the bull ring to be lopped off to the highest bidder and George Stewart was that bidder. The horse was shipped to Winchester, where it has been put through an "easy course of sprouts" ever since, and those who have seen it perform acclaim it one of the speediest green pacers uncovered in these parts for some time. Mr. Stewart is very sweet on his racer, and he proposes to enter it in some of the Jacksonville events for green pacers this season. The horse that takes the measure of this Winchester phenom, if the advance dope stands up in a test race, will in itself have to be an unbeatable critter.

The battle this evening in the Vernon enclosure between Johnny Cou-lon and Kid Williams is giving the fans much concern. Coulon's followers are timid, while those trailing the Baltimorean are certain the kid will be returned a winner long before the time limit of twenty rounds.
Coulon has advised his friends in Chicago to bet their last dollar on him; but his showing against Frankie Burns and Young Sinnet does not warrant the enthusiasm of the champion. True, if he has fully recovered from his rheumatism, there will be nothing but Coulon in the 116 pound championship quarrel. He has trained faithfully and hard for this go, but there is some doubt as to his fitness for a grueling battle, such as the one today is certain to be. Those at the battelield have installed Williams favorite at 10 to 9.

Joe Lake leads the batters of the American association with an average of .406. Morris Rath is well up in the list at a clip of .302. The latter is also leading the keystone guardians in fielding, and in porch-climbing he is third. This is the season "Maurie" would have shone brightly in that crew of advanced baseball experts drawing pay at the White Sox box office.

The clean cut victory of the University of Illinois team at Urbana on Saturday establishes that aggregation of athletes as one of the best all around squads in this country.
Too much credit cannot be given Coach Gill, whose method of training has had so much to do in developing the talent at Urbana university. Today he is ranked the best mentor of college athletes in the west.

Red Faber came right back Sunday and pitched a corking good game. Unlike his debut for thirteen innings at Detroit, his teammates in the Yankee game Sunday were of some assistance, securing four runs off McHale and Caldwell while he was shutting out New York. He allowed three hits, passed three and hit one batter, but not one Chance man became acquainted with the third corner during the entire nine sessions.

Ray Schalk has learned to lay down a bunt in "the squeeze," in the game against the Yankees the attempt was successful. Callahan apparently is attempting to crab "advanced ball" and get a little of the real article out of the White Sox.

McGuire of the Chiefs, a youngster from the Chicago prairies, not only leads the winning pitchers in the Federal league, but the "policeman" is fifth in the league's batting averages with a percentage of .370.
When not performing on the mound, Tinker has given him the position of honor man with the willow in the pinch.

Going head down in a practice spin
Sunday afternoon at Hawthorne track, Chicago's "Fearless" Blake, the Los Angeles motorcycle racer, crashed into a heavy rolling machine. The former racing demon was hitting it up at a seventy miles an hour clip when the accident happened. His skull was crushed, his back and a leg broken, and shortly after being removed to a hospital he died.

Burlington in the Central association, and Davenport in the Three Eyes league have the other teams in their respective organizations tied in a knot—are away out in front and at this writing it looks as if they would remain there.

The race in the American association continues warm, with four teams in a bunch for the lead. Indianapolis has dropped to third, having been passed by Milwaukee and Louisville, and the Indians are hard pressed by Kansas City, which is only ten points behind last week's leaders.

An entry list of 240 started in the qualifying rounds of the Trans-Mississippi golf tournament at Kansas City yesterday morning. Harry G. Legg, a four-time champion in this great mid-western tournament, in practice has been followed by large galleries, as have Thorne, Morrison and Hodge.

DENVER BUYS EDDINGTON.
Denver, June 8.—Frank Eddington, outfielder, has been purchased from the Columbus team of the American association by the Denver
Western League team.

WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

FAVORING NEWS ELICITS ONLY SMALL RESPONSE IN STOCKS

Operators Are Indifferent to Outside Influences and Market Plods Along at a Slow Rate.

New York, June 7.—Favoring news from several sources today elicited only a small response from the stock market. After the first half hour the tone was good but operators were indifferent to outside influences and the market plodded along at a slow rate. In a few cases there were movements of some proportions but the average change was trivial.

The supreme court's decision in the Shreveport rate case which has long been awaited as a matter of first importance failed to produce a ripple. The court's ruling that congress has power to regulate interstate railroad rates where such action is necessary to preserve inter-state regulations and that it is essential for the roads to have one master instead of as many masters as there are states, all that had been hoped for in the financial district.

AFTER SUFFERING TWO LONG YEARS

Mrs. Aselin Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pink-

Minneapolis, Minn.—"After my little one was born I was sick with pains in my sides which the doctors said were caused by inflammation. I suffered a great deal every month and grew very thin. I was under the doctor's care for two long years without any benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try it we got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the third bottle of the Compound I was able to do my housework and today I am strong and healthy again. I will answer letters if anyone wishes to know about my case."—Mrs. JOSEPH ASELIN, 628 Monroe St., N. E., Minneapolis, Minn.

Most Skin Trouble Readily Overcome

The Active Principle of a Famous Remedy Works Wonders.

Many people have marveled the way S. S. S. overcomes skin troubles. The explanation is the fact that S. S. S. works in the blood and the blood is really a most intricate and extraordinary mass of arteries and veins. When you come to realize that the skin and the flesh beneath are composed of a network of tiny blood vessels you solve the mystery. There are wonderful medicinal properties in S. S. S. that follow the course of the blood streams just as naturally as the most nourishing food elements. It is really a remarkable remedy. It contains one ingredient, the active principle of which is to stimulate the tissues to the healthy selection of its own essential nutrient. And the medicinal elements of this matchless blood purifier are just as essential to well-balanced health as the nutritious elements of the meats, grains, fats and sugars of our daily food. Not one drop of minerals or drugs is used in its preparation. Ask for S. S. S. and just insist upon having it. And if you desire skillful advice and counsel upon any matter concerning the blood and skin, write to the Medical Department, The S. S. S. Co., 529 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Do not allow some zealous clerk's quackery over something "just as good" as S. S. S. to fool you with the same mineral drugs. Beware of all substitutes. Insist upon S. S. S.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES AT WHIPPLE ACADEMY

Seniors Varied Usual Program With Excellently Given Play.

The Whipple Academy commencement exercises under the trees on the college campus attracted a goodly audience Monday morning and all present fully enjoyed every part of the program which was excellent. After an invocation by Rev. E. W. Akers of this city the audience enjoyed a fine musical number, a String Trio, Introduction, from Terzetto—Dvorak, op. 74, by Misses Carrie Dunlap, Sallie Harton and Mr. Dean Cochran.

These musicians played most admirably and then came a pleasing innovation, or departure from the stereotyped manner of such occasions, a play instead of oratorical exercises, and it was as most pleasing. The scene of this little play is laid in the English country home of Mr. Rivers. The time is the present. Joan, the younger daughter of Mr. Rivers, has recently returned from a finishing school on the continent. Lois and a young law-student, who has visited in the neighborhood have met and fallen in love during the absence of Joan. The girls exchanged confidences and the fact that Joan also has a sweetheart is revealed. Lord's arrival proves that he is likewise the man with whom Joan is in love. Lois' sacrifice of her own happiness to that of her sister, is typified as "sunset" in her life. The play is based upon Tennyson's second and longer poem, "The Sisters".

Cast of Characters.
Lois, half sister—Clara Lane.
Joan, half sister—Frances Hubble.
Aunt Drusilla—Helen Killam.
Lawrence Leigh—Edward Korsmeyer.

Azariah Stodd—Brownlee Hubble.
Mr. Rivers (Lois' father)—Wilson Akers.

The play was well presented and for its success due credit should be given Miss Jeanette Taylor, who drilled the young performers. All the work was natural and easy and each part was well taken and at the end the audience "called the talented performer before the curtain."

Another musical number, String Trio, Sherzo from Terzetto—Dvorak, op. 74, followed, and then came the announcement of prizes as follows:

Celebration Contest.
First, Miss Catherine Capps.

Second, Miss Helen Killam.

Two scholarships are also awarded each year, one to the boy making the best marks for two years and one to the girl, the successful ones this year being Chester Colton and Helen Killam.

Before presenting the diplomas Principal Harris said it was difficult to define the standing of private institutions of learning and even in public schools there was more or less difficulty though some had solved the question. In the eastern states comparison is made of the successful alumni when there is no scholarship by which to compare. We have tried, hard to maintain the standard and to afford the pupils all the help possible. Private schools offer better social advantages in both academic and general training. "In eastern schools the social advantages are greater than elsewhere but here more attention is paid to academic training. We have endeavored to consult the academy in such a manner that its diploma will be valuable to all who possess it."

The diplomas were then presented and the benediction by Rev. H. D. French ended the exercises.

The following received diplomas: J. Wilson Akers, Joseph Chester Colton, Margaret Dorothy Foster, Karl B. Hill, Frances Hubble, Helen Margaret Killam, Frank K. Miller, Harry Pierce, Robert M. Strain.

Special diplomas: Brownlee M. Hubble, Clara Elizabeth Lane, Frank Griffith Morrison.

RURAL SCHOOL NOTES.

Items of Special Interest in the Betterment of Rural Schools.

"Every agricultural school should have a normal department for the sole purpose of training teachers for rural schools," declares J. L. McBrien in his Arkansas report.

Trees for beautifying school grounds are furnished free to rural schools in California by the Chico state normal school. Chico will also send, on request, a man to lay out school gardens in rural communities.

Kansas state agricultural college has a campaign on for enlisting 20,000 Kansas boys and girls in agricultural and homemaking contests this year. A special state organizer has been appointed.

Edgecombe county, N. C., has recently held a series of "community uplift meetings," under the auspices of the educational and agricultural departments of the county. The county commissioners appropriated $100 toward the work. Another item of progress in this county is the provision for a woman assistant superintendent of rural schools at a salary of $750 per year.

Although California has had for more than ten years a law authorizing consolidation of schools, consolidation is not looked upon with favor, according to J. C. Muernan, an official of the bureau, who is now stationed in the southwest. Two of the schools visited by Mr. Muernan had only six pupils enrolled. The teachers received $70 a month. Both schools had good libraries.

Hawkins county, Tenn., recently accomplished a notable feat in consolidation. Four schools were consolidated; and the new building provided is a $4,500 structure with six acres of good land, located on a pike road. Two of the old schools were converted into a residence for the principal. The land was donated with the understanding that it should be worked as a demonstration school farm. The principal is hired for 12 months in the year.

State Superintendent Harris of Louisiana in a recent official letter commends the Natchitoches parish school board for inviting the county boys from all sections of the parish to assemble for a week to study agricultural questions under the direction of agricultural experts. The boys of each rural school elected one or more representatives to attend this institute. The 68 farmer boys were given free entertainment in the homes of the people of Natchitoches. These boys were intensely interested in the work of the institute and joined intelligently and earnestly in the discussion of agricultural questions.

J. C. Timberman of Chester, W. Va., tells of a certain school in his state where 40 pupils were enrolled. All 40 pupils attended school the six months required by the compulsory attendance law, but ten stayed away the last three months of school. "Now it cost just as much," argues Mr. Timberman, "to operate this school the last three months with the reduced attendance as it did when the entire 40 attended. There is a loss of 25 per cent of the entire expense of the school. The teacher receives $55; and 25 per cent of $55 is $13.75 per month loss. Multiply this by three and you get a loss of $41.25 for three months. The district therefore loses $41.25 multiplied by 18, or $742.50 each year, through a weak compulsory education law and negligent parents. Do you think any private business would permit such a willful waste? If such criminal waste is not good for private business, why do we permit it in public business?"

A school census for rural districts has been put into successful operation by Superintendent Morton of Concord township, schools, Frankfort, Ohio. The census card used gives more facts than the usual registration cards. It shows whether glasses are worn or not; whether eyes have been examined and when; whether the pupil has been vaccinated and when; and physical defects of any kind. In explaining why he drew up the census card Superintendent Morton says: "Coming into a new field here last fall, I found it a very difficult task to become acquainted with between 400 and 500 enrolled pupils, their parents, and the conditions under which they lived. Hence the census card. The teachers have filled out one of these cards for each pupil in the supervisory district. With these cards filed alphabetically in my office, I have immediate access to a large amount of information, which is at times almost indispensable. The first thing I did was to ascertain the percentage of retarded pupils and then proceed to investigate individual cases. These cards together with the teachers' monthly reports, make it possible for me to talk intelligently with any parent who may drop into the office concerning his children, their progress in school, or any other school and home problem."

WHEELER'S RETURN TO LINEUP GIVES THE EAGLES A BRACE

Locals Play in Old Time Form and Easily Defeat Pekin Rainbows Sunday by Score of 9 to 2.

Captain Dick Wheeler returned to the line-up of the Eagles in Sunday's game, and as a result the team which had been playing rather ordinary ball for some time took a big brace and played in old time form. The Eagles had as opponents the Pekin Rainbows, one of their most formidable rivals in the 1913 series.

A good-sized crowd was out expecting to see a fast and close game. The crowd was disappointed. Simms was in too good form for the Rainbows to figure in the run column until the very last inning, when he let down sufficiently to allow three hits which gave the Pekinites their only tallies of the game. Up to the ninth he had held them to two hits and his team mates backed him up in great shape. Woodman was on first in place of McCollister, who layed off on account of a bum finger and Howard played the initial sack to the queen's taste. DeFrates was the hitting kid, getting three safe swats. Clark pressed him very close, getting two, Denny and Cannon also finding the pill for the same reason.

The Rainbows' pitcher, Pyell, was a good one, having a fast inshoot and good control. He struck out nine men. His support was bad, though, the Eagles scoring two in the first on a combination of hits by Cannon, DeFrates and Clark and errors by Pyell and White. The latter had two misplays and both costly. Hits by Denny, DeFrates and a two-bagger by Abell scored two more in the fifth. In the seventh Cannon, DeFrates and Clark did the hitting, which brought in two. The eighth brought three. A base on balls to Woodman, a hit by Simms, one by Denny, a bad heave by Kellogg on DeFrates did the business. Lowman and the Callahans brought home two for Pekin in the ninth. The score:

Notes.

The Peoria Puffs come next Sunday. They are said to be a fast aggregation.

Wheeler is fast rounding into his regular form. The crowd gave him a hearty welcome. He is a hard worker and puts pep into his team-mates.

Umpire Schaub called them right throughout the game, which was a rather hard one to umpire. He has the respect of both players and spectators.

Denny made a clever job of base running. He had the whole Pekin infield after him, but outdressed them.

Cannon's well known speed on the cinder paths is standing him in good stead now. He is lightning on the bases.

"Happy" lived up to his nickname. He wore a broad smile over his three hits. He played a nice game at short, too.

Clark continues to take them as they come. He nailed 'em at second good and hard.

The present line-up looks good. There is more batting strength with Dick back on the job.

Just to show the crowd that they could do it, DeFrates and Clark changed positions in the ninth and finished in fine style.

The New Perfection Range With the "Fireless Cooker" Oven

It is the triumph of the NEW PERFECTION line, a splendid range with a cabinet top and an insulated THERMOS oven that stops the loss of heat by radiation, a fault common to all other stoves. This keeping the heat out of the kitchen and in the oven saves fuel. One burner does the work of two. You can have intense, quick heat, or slow and steady, as you want it. After thorough heating the THERMOS oven holds heat six or seven hours, which makes it the most perfect and convenient fireless cooker ever invented. The cabinet top has a spacious warming shelf, there is space behind the burner for keeping food hot. And don't overlook the special NEW PERFECTION broiler, supplied with its range, which broils on both sides at once, increasing tenderness and flavor. Keeps the kitchen cool. Best of all, this burning clean, convenient, economical oil, makes your kitchen a cool, comfortable place to work. No more of the suffocating heat that cooks suffer with a coal range, none of the dangers of gasoline, far cheaper than gas. Ready by striking a match, no dust, dirt or ashes, smoke or odor. This newest PERFECTION with the THERMOS oven may be seen at your dealer's. You will know it by the Triangle Trademark. Ask him to show it to you and explain its wonderful equipment—the THERMOS oven, broiler, and patent fuel supply tank, etc. He has other PERFECTION models also, all equally efficient. You will find one at the price you want to pay, which will do the work of a coal range with out its deadly heat and without its dirt and trouble.

ROGER SULLIVAN MADE VISIT IN JACKSONVILLE

Chicago Democrat Seeking Senatorial Nomination is Engaged in Campaign of Meeting the People Down State.

Roger C. Sullivan, democratic candidate for the nomination for the United States senatorship arrived in Jacksonville Monday morning on the Wabash and after spending the morning here went by automobile to Winchester. Mr. Sullivan was accompanied by his secretary Frank J. Ford, and W. H. Culver, representative of the Chicago Tribune, The Record Herald and Inter Ocean and the St. Louis Republic. "Jack" McGrath of Jerseyville met the party here and Thomas Page of Jerseyville is to join them today.

Mr. Sullivan was met at the train by a goodly number of Democrats and with a smaller committee visited most of the business houses. At noon a number of Democrats gathered at the Dunlap for lunch and altogether Mr. Sullivan's reception here was quite cordial. No effort had been made for a speaking program, the idea of the candidate being simply to meet personally as many local people as possible.

Among other places visited was the Ayers bank building which Mr. Sullivan inspected and he remained there for an hour or more greeting a great many people during that time. Among Democrats who at various times served on the introduction committee were John W. Merrigan, W. N. Haight, John Cleary, Bernard Gause, W. B. Rogers, James Kenney, W. C. Howe, Dr. Kingsley, Edward Lonergan.

Mr. Sullivan's itinerary for the first three days of the week is interesting as indicating how thoroughly he is covering the ground. Counties: Morgan, Scott, Pike, Calhoun, Jersey, Greene, Alacoupin, Montgomery.

"ATTAIN PERFECTION THAT YOU MAY SERVE" IS WORD TO GRADUATES

Illinois College Baccalaureate Service Marked by Trenchant Appeal For Life of Social Service — Address by Dr. O. S. Davis.

The Illinois college baccalaureate services were held at the Congregational church Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock, the Rev. Ozora S. Davis, president of the Chicago Theological seminary, giving the address. (With a strong appeal to the graduating class for a continued striving toward perfection, Dr. Davis pointed out the purpose of true, harmonious education. He urged that each perfect and dedicate himself or the service of others.

During the service Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson sang "Adore and Be Still," by Gounod, a sentiment to which Dr. Davis turned to apt account at the beginning of his discourse. Prayers were offered by the Rev. H. D. French of State street, the Rev. R. O. Post of the Congregational church and the Rev. A. B. Morey. By constantly repeated testimony, the address of Dr. Davis was among the best baccalaureate sermons ever delivered in Jacksonville.

The Problem of Perfection.

"Young men and young women, your task is to secure perfection. You will be told that you should enjoy life as the Greeks, that you should live one world at a time and realize to the full the present moment. You will be told again that you are the creature of two worlds and that your concern must be with salvation, service and sacrifice. Between these two conceptions you must formulate your ideal. You must realize that your task is that of self development and that you are confronted with the problem of perfection.

"This task of self development is a seven-fold task. You are to strive for the perfection of the physical, intellectual, volitional, emotional, social, moral and spiritual natures. Of great importance is rugged, physical health. The time is past when we think that to be unhealthy is to be holy. College men appreciate the value of physical training, but college men are apt to neglect personal development and to indulge in delegated athletics. Physical culture by proxy is becoming the usual thing. The cigarette smoking "bleacher athlete" is all too common.

"You need intellectual development, but you will soon learn that thinking is hard work. A college training is worth little unless it teaches those who receive it how to think.

"The will must be trained and strengthened. Your education, as measured by the discipline that has been given your will. You must become men of resolution and determination, with power to choose. We need strong, "vertebrate" thinking—thinking with backbone. We need to be relentless in our decisions, and that takes courage.

The Love of the Beautiful.

"I wish to talk to you a moment about your devotions, about your taste and your sense of the beautiful. You must learn what a great power for good is this appreciation of the beautiful. Have you learned to appreciate good pictures? What kind of pictures do you have in your room? How does good music affect you? I can almost sense the character of a student from a look at the pictures with which he habitually associates. You should not only love and admire that which is beautiful, but should come to that point where anything ugly is repellant; and disgusting to you.

"Most men are morally confused. Their judgments are warped and they cannot see clearly. If all the situations in life came to them labeled "right" or "wrong," they might escape serious trouble, but as it is, they have no power of fine distinction between good and evil. Moral discrimination—that is what we need.

Social Consciousness.

"Among the most remarkable phenomena of the present age is the birth and growth of social consciousness. A valid test of an education is the power to develop this social consciousness. Since 1859 the world has made more intellectual progress than has ever been recorded for any like period. How can you best give yourself to serve your fellow man? Your education will be tested by the social use you will make of it. You must align yourself with this vivid sense of democracy, this enlarged conception of human brotherhood. You must strive for perfection that you may be able to serve the more efficiently.

"Finally, there is the soul—the child of the infinite, which claims its heritage on earth. How, in your time spent in college, have you cultivated it? Do you dream of the perfect more fully? Are you spiritually alive? Are you spiritually aflame with deathless ardors?

"All these things must be developed. The great desideratum is that the man of over-trained muscles, of superabundant mentality, is not normal. The little man, stubborn and headstrong, who always has his opinion and always wants his way, is always giving trouble and is of little value as an amn. The troublesome reformer is nothing but the man whose social nature is exaggerated. Neither moral nor spiritual natures should be allowed to usurp the place of the others and the one-sided man should concern himself with developing opposite qualities.

"To obtain happiness and satisfaction, you must seek it by serving others. You must give yourself. I know that I must perfect my own life for their sake. The demands of this age are almost mad-making. You will have to live harder than your fathers did. You must work and sacrifice, and if to your community you would be of the greatest value you must confront the problem of perfection and live life at its very best. You must give yourself freely and without stint, that you

We Keep Your Suit New!

The man who does not have his clothes dry cleaned and pressed frequently,—does not get the full wear out of them.

Long before the clothes are worn out the lapels droop over, the coat front breaks, the sleeves wrinkle and pull out at the elbow, the trousers become baggy and lose their shape at the bottom, and the entire suit looks old and disreputable.

Our service keeps them clean and fresh, keeps them shaped right and fitting perfectly until they wear out. It's not only an aid to good dressing—but a real economy, as well.

Take advantage of it frequently.
